Massive “Treasure Hunt” Sale to Benefit Brattain House

Springfield, Ore. – Springfield’s Brattain House, a hub for family services for Springfield Public Schools students and their families, is hosting its annual Treasure Hunt sale next week, with bargain prices on a wide assortment of goods gleaned after students left campus for the summer.

Who: Brattain House

What: Treasure Hunt Sale

When: Thursday–Friday, August 13–14, 10:00 a.m.–6:00 p.m.; Saturday, August 15, 9 a.m.–5 p.m.

Where: 1075 International Way, Springfield. (Two blocks off Beltline, across from the State Police Office. Watch for signs.)

Items available include printers and monitors, refrigerators, books, rugs, furniture, hotpots and dorm kitchen gear, lamps, closet organizers, bedding, etc.

“If you can picture it in a college dorm room, it’ll be here,” says Janet Beckman, McKinney-Vento liaison at the Brattain House. “This is a fantastic opportunity for parents on a budget trying to get their kids ready to head off for college.”

All proceeds will go toward McKinney-Vento (homeless) Program and the student support fund for students in need.

For more information or to make a donation please call Janet @ (541) 731-0033.
