SPRINGFIELD HIGH SCHOOL BEST OF SHS PEP RALLY

- WHO: Springfield High School
- WHAT: Homecoming Pep Rally (11th annual)
- WHEN: October 14, 2015
- WHERE: Silke Field 10th and G St. / Silke Parking Lot
- WHY: Homecoming pep rally is a community event celebrating and showcasing the best of Springfield High School including demonstrations from groups as diverse as Glass and Graphics to face painting. The evening begins at 5:00 p.m. with vendor and food booths provided by our various clubs and organizations including, but not limited to, German, SODA (Students opposed to Drugs and Alcohol), Boosters, Miller MOB, Football, Women's Basketball, Men's basketball, Multicultural Club, GSA, Women's and Men' Soccer programs as well as the Swim club. We have just as much variety in food as we do events - brats, tamales, Philly steak sandwiches, chicken and rice, pizza, corn on the cob and, of course, grilled hamburgers. For your sweet tooth we offer carmel apples, donuts, pie and a variety of baked goods. This event will be a great time to stock up on your Miller t-shirts, sweatshirts and hats.

At 7:00 p.m. the action moves from the vendor booths to inside the stadium. Inside the stadium the Homecoming Court nominees will be introduced. There will be performances by our award-winning choir, theater, marching band, and the state champion cheer team. Classes will do their best to defeat each other in class competitions. Coach Heuberger will deliver a resounding pep talk to fire up the crowd as SHS we takes on the Ashland Grizzlies for the Homecoming game Friday night. The evening will end with a fall sports highlight video shown on a huge screen in the stadium. A tremendous fireworks show at dusk will cap off the evening.

NOTE: Glass blowing and demonstrations on the pottery wheel are always hits and are well attended. The class competitions provide fun and excitement. The fireworks display promises to be spectacular.
